BANKS WILL NAME HOUSE MEMBERS SOON

But None of Judiciary Committee Will Be Put on Special Committee to Consider Utilities Bill

Speaker Will Appoint Democrats, and a Majority of House Members Will Be of Those Who Favored Principle of Bill-Chandler and Whiton Only Men Certainly Announced.

Judge Elmore S. Banks, speaker of the House of Representatives, has not completed the selection of the members of the special committee that is to endeavor to perfect a public utilities bill, to be presented to the present general assembly. The speaker has decided, however, that no member of the judiciary committee of the present mittee.

mittee.

The reason for this is obvious. The question to be considered has already been before the judiciary committee and was unfavorably reported. Speaker Banks believes that, in view of the sentiment which developed in the general assembly adverse to the position taken by the judiciary committee on this question, it would not be the proper thing to name any member of that committee upon the special committee. WIRE TAPPERS UNDER ARREST

Boston, May 15.—Governor Draper to-day filed with the clerk of the House a message containing his veto on the bill to limit the hours of public employes to eight hours a day. The main feature of the bill to which it is understood the Governor objected is the measure which changes the present law which reads that such employes shall not be "required" to work more than that number of hours. The new bill substitutes the word "permitted." There have been several conferences between the Governor and officials of the State Federation of Labor over the matter. It is understood that the Governor was willing to sign (Special from United Press.)
